Dear Maria Fernanda Lairer

We are delighted to accept your application for participation in the upcoming LATIN-AMERICAN PAVILION & THE INTERNATIONAL WING in the next ART SHANGHAI 2012, from May 10th thru 14th in Hongqiao New Town Central Park, Shanghai, PR CHINA.

ART Shanghai has been successfully held for nine consecutive years since its establishment in 2003. With its distinctive style and characteristic such as high quality, great artistry of works and excellent professional service, the fair takes the fancy of exhibitors and visitors. Its influence covering the whole nation and overseas areas, the fair has become a significant cultural brand of Shanghai, enjoying fairly high reputation throughout the world.

Once again ART SHANGHAI will host the presence of The Latin-American Pavilion (LAP) & International Wing (Space dedicated to Western Art), a prominent space dedicated to the highest quality of Latin-American Art and International Art in general from masters and contemporaries.

The Latin-American Pavilion (LAP) & the International Wing is curated by Aldo Castillo, an established fine art dealer and art curator with more than 25 years of experience in managing, marketing and developing the arts in the United States. His reputation and progressive ventures in the United States won him many recognitions and awards. Castillo brings a singular expertise surely to transform Art Shanghai, a unique combination of personal curatorial vision for cultural exchange, that unite forward thinking galleries while providing opportunities for economic development.

We look forward to working with you in the upcoming three months to plan for a very exciting and successful art fair. We will start sending you the Exhibitor's Manual, floor plan and ways to start downloading your images and exhibition information for PR and marketing of the fair.

Please do not hesitate contacting me or any member of our staff if we can be of any assistance in completing the operation set up for your participation in the fair.

We are looking forward to seeing you and your art in Shanghai in May!

Respectfully yours,

Alvaro A. Cirillo
